ACADEMIC ORIENTATION TO B.ED & M.ED STUDENTS

An academic orientation session was conducted on 22nd December 2021, aimed at providing essential information to first-year B.Ed & M.Ed. students. Led by the College Dean, the session offered insights into the institution's background, including a brief historical overview and an overview of the B.Ed & M.Ed. program's Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs). Furthermore, the Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) for each B.Ed & M.Ed course, along with their respective credits, were elucidated.

FRESHERS WITH SENIORS

The discussion extended to the examination and evaluation procedures designed to assess the attainment of CLOs. Practical assignments and tasks integral to the program were also outlined during the session to familiarize students with the practical component of their studies.

INDUCTION DAY FOR B.ED AND M.ED

The Student Induction Day held on August 19, 2019, marked an important milestone for both new M.Ed. and B.Ed. students, as they were introduced to key elements of their academic journey. The day commenced with an insightful overview of the Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) and Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) for both the M.Ed. and B.Ed. programs, providing a clear roadmap for their educational pursuits.

A significant portion of the induction was dedicated to discussing assessment practices, ensuring students understood the methods by which their progress and achievement would be evaluated. This discussion aimed to familiarize students with the assessment criteria, fostering a transparent and supportive learning environment.

ACADEMIC INSTRUCTIONS

Furthermore, the induction featured introductions to the college staff, allowing students to connect faces with names and roles within the institution. This facilitated a sense of community and support, crucial for students navigating their academic journey.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

An ice-breaking session was also incorporated into the program, providing an opportunity for students to interact with each other in a relaxed and informal setting. This session aimed to ease any initial apprehensions and build camaraderie among peers, laying the foundation for collaborative learning and peer support throughout the academic year.

In summary, the Student Induction Day served as a pivotal introduction to the academic landscape for incoming M.Ed. and B.Ed. students. By acquainting them with program objectives, assessment practices, college staff, and fostering a sense of belonging through ice-breaking activities, the induction set a positive tone for their educational journey, emphasizing collaboration, support, and academic excellence.

BLOSSOMS DAY FOR B.ED AND M.ED

The Student Induction Day held on August 24, 2018, was a momentous occasion for new students embarking on their journey in both the M.Ed. and B.Ed. programs. The day commenced with a comprehensive introduction to the Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) and Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) of both programs, providing students with a clear understanding of the educational objectives they would be working towards.

A significant portion of the induction was dedicated to discussing assessment practices, ensuring students were well-informed about the methods by which their progress and achievements would be evaluated throughout their academic tenure. This discussion aimed to equip students with the necessary knowledge and skills to excel in their studies while fostering a culture of continuous improvement.

Moreover, the induction featured an introduction to the college staff, allowing students to familiarize themselves with the individuals who would be guiding and supporting them throughout their academic journey. This facilitated a sense of connection and collaboration, essential for creating a conducive learning environment.
