

Practice teaching

During Practice teaching, students work closely with mentor teachers who provide guidance, support, and feedback to help them develop their teaching abilities. This experience allows future teachers to hone their instructional techniques, classroom management strategies, and communication skills.

Internship

An internship is a temporary position within a school where student-teacher gain practical work experience in a specific field.

Health Education and Nutrition with ICT support

This internship opportunity involves gaining hands-on experience in health education and nutrition programs, with a focus on utilizing ICT tools for enhanced communication and implementation.
