It was reminded that Anti-Ragging Committee effectively works in our college. It is to be informed to all the students that the help line numbers to make a complaint is made accessible through the notice board. It is also made known that immediate and necessary actions will be taken on the complaints. Committee will act as savior for all the students against Ragging.

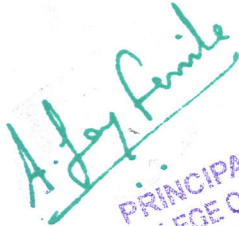

It is also ensured that it is "Ragging Free Campus" since the college has not received any complaints regarding Ragging from students and from members of the committee.

It was also decided to conduct competitions such as Slogan writing and Elocution against Ragging to create more awareness about the same. The session will be concluded with vote of thanks given by Mrs.S. Jacklin, M.Ed student of Anti-Ragging Committee.
