REPORT ON ORIENTATION ON EFFECTIVE MENTORING

Date: 18.11.2022

An orientation session on effective mentoring was conducted by Mrs. Ashwathi Sathish, Guest Lecturer from Madras University, aimed at acquainting staff members with the principles and practices of successful mentoring. The session provided valuable insights into the significance of mentorship in professional development and offered guidance on how to become effective mentors.

Mrs. Ashwathi Sathish commenced the session by introducing the concept of effective mentoring and its importance in fostering growth and development among colleagues. She emphasized the role of mentors in providing guidance, support, and encouragement to mentees, thereby facilitating their success in their professional endeavours.

Key Topics Covered:

Understanding the Role of a Mentor: The orientation focused on delineating the responsibilities and qualities of an effective mentor. Mrs. Ashwathi Sathish elucidated on the importance of building trust, establishing clear communication channels, and providing constructive feedback to mentees.

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION OF THE STAFF

Communication and Relationship Building: Effective communication lies at the heart of successful mentoring relationships. Participants were guided on how to establish rapport with their mentees, actively listen to their concerns, and foster a supportive and nurturing environment conducive to growth and development.

Goal Setting and Action Planning: The session emphasized the significance of setting clear goals and developing action plans to support the professional growth of mentees. Mrs. Ashwathi Sathish provided guidance on how to collaboratively establish SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-bound) goals and monitor progress towards their attainment.

Support and Encouragement: Mentoring involves providing both emotional and professional support to mentees. Participants were encouraged to empathize with their mentees' challenges, celebrate their successes, and provide guidance and encouragement throughout their journey.

Vote of Thanks:

Mrs. D. Subhashini extended her sincere gratitude to Mrs. Ashwathi Sathish for her insightful orientation on effective mentoring. She expressed appreciation for Mrs. Ashwathi Sathish expertise and dedication in guiding staff members towards becoming effective mentors. Mrs. Subhashini acknowledged the importance of mentorship in fostering a supportive and collaborative work environment and reiterated the institution's commitment to nurturing the professional growth and development of its staff.

In conclusion, the orientation on effective mentoring conducted by Mrs. Ashwathi Sathish served as a valuable opportunity for staff members to gain insights into the principles and practices of successful mentorship. It equipped participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to support and empower their colleagues in their professional endeavours, thereby contributing to a culture of continuous learning and growth within the institution.
