CONCESSION IN TUITION FEES/HOSTEL FEE

I am writing to inform you of an important decision that has been made by the college administration. After careful consideration and assessment of the current circumstances, we have decided to offer a tuition and hostel fee waiver/concession to a select list of students.

The waiver/concession will cover 40 % of your tuition and hostel fees for the academic year 2018-2019. This means that you will be able to focus on your studies and academic pursuits without worrying about the financial aspect.

We believe in providing equal opportunities for all our students, and this initiative is aimed at ensuring that no deserving student is left behind due to financial constraints. We hope that this concession will enable you to excel in your studies and achieve your academic goals.

Please note that this concession is being offered based on certain criteria and conditions, which will be communicated to you separately. If you have any questions or concerns regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to contact the college administration for clarification.

Once again, congratulations on being selected for this concession. We wish you all the best in your academic endeavors and look forward to seeing you succeed.

Group insurance (Health / Accident)

Indhira College of Education aims to provide comprehensive insurance coverage for its students for the academic year 2022-2023. Group insurance offers a cost-effective solution for providing financial protection against unforeseen events, ensuring the well-being of the college's members.

Coverage Details:

The proposed group insurance plan covers 150 members of Indhira College of Education, including all student and staff. The coverage includes but is not limited to:

Medical expenses: In-patient and out-patient treatment, including hospitalization, surgeries, diagnostic tests, and consultations.

Accidental death and dismemberment: Lump-sum payment in case of accidental death or permanent disability.

Critical illness: Coverage for specified critical illnesses such as cancer, heart attack, stroke, etc.

Personal accident: Compensation for accidental injuries resulting in temporary or permanent disability.

Group insurance Registration

Emergency evacuation and repatriation: Coverage for medical evacuation in case of emergencies.

Life insurance: Lump-sum payment to the nominee in case of the insured member's demise.

Optional add-ons: Additional coverage options such as dental care, vision care, maternity benefits, etc., can be included based on the college's preferences and budget.

Insurance Provider:

We recommend partnering with reputable insurance providers with extensive experience in group insurance schemes for educational institutions. A thorough evaluation of the provider's reputation, financial stability, claim settlement ratio, and customer service should be conducted before finalizing the partnership.

Premium and Payment Options:

The premium amount for the group insurance plan will depend on factors such as coverage limits, members' age demographics, and optional add-ons. The college can explore flexible payment options, including annual, semi-annual, or quarterly payments, to suit its budgetary requirements.

Benefits of Group Insurance:

Financial security: Group insurance provides financial protection to members and their families against unexpected medical expenses, accidents, and other covered risks.

Employee retention and morale: Offering comprehensive insurance coverage demonstrates the college's commitment to the well-being of its students and staff, fostering loyalty and job satisfaction.

Competitive advantage: Providing attractive benefits packages, including group insurance, helps the college attract top talent in the education sector and stay competitive in the job market.
