REPORT ON OFFICE MANNERS TRAINING PROGRAM

Date: 07-05-2022

INTRODUCTION

A training program on office manners was conducted by Mrs. Jayavardhini to Ms. Jayalakshmi, an office assistant at Indhira College of Education. The objective of this program was to instill professional conduct and etiquette in Ms. Jayalakshmi's interactions within the office environment.

OBJECTIVES

- To educate Ms. Jayalakshmi on the importance of office manners in creating a positive work environment.
- To enhance Ms. Jayalakshmi's communication skills and professionalism.
- To ensure that Ms. Jayalakshmi adheres to appropriate behavior and etiquette standards while performing her duties.

SESSION DETAILS

The training session took place on 3-11-2022 and lasted for an hour.

Mrs. Jayavardhini conducted the session, covering the following key topics:

a. Importance of Office Manners: The significance of maintaining decorum, respect, and professionalism in the workplace was emphasized. Mrs. Jayavardhini highlighted how positive office manners contribute to a conducive work environment and foster healthy relationships among colleagues.

b. Communication Skills: Techniques for effective verbal and non-verbal communication were discussed. This included active listening, clear articulation, and maintaining eye contact during conversations. Mrs. Jayavardhini also addressed the importance of tone and body language in conveying messages appropriately.

PRINCIPAL
INDHIRA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
PANDUR, THIRUVALLUR-631 203

c. Email Etiquette: Guidelines for composing professional emails, including proper salutations, clear and concise language, and timely responses, were provided. Mrs. Jayavardhini demonstrated how to structure emails for clarity and professionalism.

d. Respect for Colleagues: The importance of respecting diversity, valuing opinions, and maintaining confidentiality in the workplace was emphasized. Mrs. Jayavardhini encouraged Ms. Jayalakshmi to cultivate empathy and understanding towards her colleagues' perspectives.

e. Time Management: Strategies for managing time effectively and prioritizing tasks were discussed. Mrs. Jayavardhini emphasized the importance of punctuality and meeting deadlines to maintain productivity and professionalism.

INTERACTIVE ACTIVITIES

To reinforce learning, Mrs. Jayavardhini conducted interactive activities such as role-playing scenarios and group discussions. These activities allowed Ms. Jayalakshmi to practice applying office manners in different situations and receive feedback from her trainer.

CONCLUSION

The office manners training program concluded with a recap of key points discussed, and Mrs. Jayavardhini provided constructive feedback to Ms. Jayalakshmi. Mrs. Jayavardhini expressed confidence in Ms. Jayalakshmi's ability to apply the principles of office manners effectively in her role as an office assistant at Indhira College of Education.

DATE : 16.11.2028

In a commendable effort to promote legal awareness and public health initiatives, the B.Ed students of Indhira College of Education took proactive steps by organizing an event at the District Court Tiruvallur. The event served as a platform for educating the public on legal rights and responsibilities, with particular emphasis on issues pertaining to the local community.

One of the highlights of the event was a skit aimed at raising awareness about dengue prevention and control. Through engaging performances, the students effectively conveyed important information to the public, empowering them to take preventive measures against the spread of the disease.

The event also featured an address by Trmt. Saraswathi, Civil Judge of DLSA Tiruvallur, who shared valuable insights and guidance on legal matters relevant to the community. Her presence added significant value to the event, underscoring the importance of legal literacy in ensuring justice and equality for all.

Mrs. D. Jayakumari and A. Jayapaul provided valuable support and guidance to the students throughout the event, facilitating its smooth execution. Their dedication and commitment were instrumental in the success of the initiative.

Overall, the event served as a testament to the proactive efforts of the B.Ed students in promoting legal awareness and public health initiatives within the community. It not only imparted valuable knowledge but also fostered a sense of social responsibility among the participants, highlighting the importance of collective action in addressing pressing societal issues.

REPORT ON ONE-DAY TRAINING PROGRAMME ON CONNECT WITH CARE

Date: 02-04-2019

On 2nd April 2019, a one-day training programme titled "Connect with Care" was organized by Mrs. U. Visalatchi, Assistant Professor, at Indhira College of Education. The programme, facilitated by Mr. Jayapaul.A, aimed to raise awareness about mobile addiction and its associated hazards, as well as strategies for emotional balance in the digital age.

RANGOLI AND BOARD DECORATION MADE BY STUDENTS

Mr. Jayapaul . A conducted the training programme using an activity-based approach, engaging participants in interactive discussions and practical exercises. The session began with an exploration of mobile addiction, highlighting its prevalence and the detrimental effects it can have on individuals' physical and mental well-being. Through real-life examples and case studies, participants gained insights into the various hazards associated with excessive mobile phone usage.

The training programme employed activity-based learning methods to enhance understanding and retention. Participants actively participated in activities designed to simulate the challenges of mobile addiction and its impact on daily life. These activities facilitated introspection and reflection, allowing participants to recognize their own patterns of mobile usage and identify strategies for healthier habits.

Both staff and students actively participated in the training programme, demonstrating keen interest and enthusiasm throughout the session. The interactive nature of the activities fostered a sense of involvement and collaboration among the participants. They not only learned about the dangers of mobile addiction but also explored practical solutions for achieving emotional balance in the digital age.

ACTIVITY BEING EXPLAINED BY THE RESOURCE PERSON

The training programme was not only informative but also enjoyable, with participants expressing appreciation for the engaging delivery style of Mr. Jayapaul.A. The session provided valuable insights and practical strategies for managing mobile addiction and promoting emotional well-being, leaving a lasting impact on all attendees.

The one-day training programme on "Connect with Care" provided a valuable opportunity for staff and students to explore the challenges of mobile addiction and develop strategies for maintaining a healthy balance in the digital age. Mrs. U. Visalatchi's initiative in organizing the programme and Mr. Jayapaul.A's expertise in facilitating engaging activities contributed to its success, ensuring a meaningful learning experience for all participants.

Doubt Clarification and Graph Drawing:

Throughout the workshop, participants had the opportunity to seek clarification on statistical concepts and SPSS functionalities. Mr. Mohana Kannan addressed their doubts with clarity and patience, ensuring that everyone had a thorough understanding of the topics covered. Additionally, participants learned how to create graphs for Chapter Four of their theses, enhancing their ability to visually represent research findings effectively.

Appreciation for the Programme Organiser:

Mrs. M.P. Rama Priya, the programme organiser, was appreciated and thanked for her efforts in coordinating the workshop. Her meticulous planning and organizational skills were instrumental in ensuring the success of the session. Participants expressed gratitude for the opportunity to enhance their research skills and acknowledged Mrs. Rama Priya's role in facilitating such a valuable learning experience.

The one-day workshop on applied statistical methods using SPSS in educational research proved to be immensely beneficial for M.Ed students and staff alike. Under the guidance of Mr. Mohana Kannan, participants gained practical insights into statistical analysis techniques essential for their thesis writing endeavors. Mrs. M.P. Rama Priya's commendable efforts as the programme organiser were pivotal in orchestrating a seamless and productive learning experience for all involved.

TALLY TRAINING PROGRAMME REPORT FOR NON-TEACHING STAFF AT INDHIRA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION (2019-2020)

Date : 09-12-20219

Indhira College of Education organized a Tally training programme for non-teaching staff to enhance their skills and proficiency in the latest version of Tally for the academic year 2019-2020. Mr. Mohana Kannan, an expert in Tally software, served as the resource person for the training.

Objectives:

The primary objectives of the training PROGRAMME were to:

- Equip non-teaching staff with practical knowledge and skills in using the latest version of Tally.
- Enhance their efficiency in financial management, accounting, and data handling tasks.
- Provide hands-on experience and guidance on utilizing Tally for day-to-day administrative functions.

Training Sessions:

The training sessions were structured to cover various aspects of Tally software, including:

- Introduction to Tally and its features.
- Basic accounting principles and terminology.
- Data entry and management using Tally.
- Generating reports and analysis.
- Advanced features and customization options.

Mr. Mohana Kannan, with his extensive experience and expertise in Tally software, conducted the training sessions. His interactive teaching style and practical demonstrations facilitated effective learning among the participants.

Participant Engagement:

The non-teaching staff actively engaged in the training sessions, participating in hands-on exercises and asking relevant questions to clarify doubts. The interactive nature of the training fostered a conducive learning environment.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Indhira College of Education was founded by Mr. V.G. Rajendran, a philanthropist with encouragement from eminent educationists. By his guiding spirit, this college was started in the year 2006 at Pandur Village, which is located 5 km from Thiruvallur town in the main Thiruvallur - Tiruthani highway amongst sylvan surroundings and serene and pollution free environment imparting quality education. It is affiliated to the Tamil Nadu Teachers Education University (TNTEU) and recognized by NCTE, Bangalore. It is a co-educational college, conducting the academic programmes leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) and M Ed (Master of Education). The College admits students without discrimination of caste, religion or creed and it has taken upon special responsibility for the education of socially and economically backward people. It has produced district first in M.Ed course and several rank holders.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Arts and Craft as a subject in the school curriculum are typically taken for granted, as a must for students and young kids in the formal educational setup. But, over the past several years, many schools have unfortunately cut down on arts in their school curriculum.

Arts and crafts are fun activities for students. Be it colouring with crayons or making miniature statues from clay, folding paper to create origami or designing, chalk piece art, collage art, Glass painting, drawing which can enhance the interest of the student and exploit their artistic potential. This will also build their cognitive, physical and social development.

Hence it becomes the need of the hour for the teachers to develop their skills in the above said activities.

We believe that this workshop would attack your potential artistically. Hence named as "Art Attack". Let's join this 'Art Attack' workshop thereby ensuring future employment too.

OBJECTIVES

- To train the students develop their artistic skills
- To explore creativity among students.
- To create future employment.

REPORT ON ART ATTACK WORKSHOP AT INDHIRA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

A vibrant and enriching workshop titled "Art Attack" was organized by Mrs. D. Jayakumari and Mrs. J. Lizzie, Assistant Professors, for both staff and students at Indhira College of Education on January 22, 2020. The workshop aimed to foster creativity and provide hands-on training in various art forms, including garland making, decorative plate making, pot painting, and pillow making.

BOARD DECORATION AND ART WORK

The workshop commenced with an introduction to the significance of art in education and its role in promoting creativity, self-expression, and aesthetic appreciation. Mrs. Jayakumari and Mrs. Lizzie emphasized the therapeutic benefits of engaging in artistic activities and encouraged participants to explore their creative potential.

Throughout the day, participants engaged in interactive sessions where they learned the techniques and intricacies of garland making, decorative plate making, pot painting, and pillow making. Mrs. Jayakumari and Mrs. Lizzie provided step-by-step guidance, demonstrating different methods and encouraging participants to unleash their creativity.

Additionally, staff members shared their expertise in various art forms during two dedicated sessions. They demonstrated advanced techniques, shared tips and tricks, and inspired participants with their creativity and passion for art. These sessions provided a platform for staff members to exchange ideas, learn from each other, and collaborate on artistic projects.

One of the highlights of the workshop was the hands-on training provided to both staff and students. Participants were given the opportunity to practice the techniques they learned under the guidance of instructors, allowing them to develop their skills and confidence in creating art.

STUDENTS SKILLED WITH ART ATTACK

Mrs. U. Visalatchi, Assistant Professor, extended her heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. D. Jayakumari, Mrs. J. Lizzie, and all the staff and students who contributed to the success of the Art Attack workshop. She expressed appreciation for their enthusiasm, creativity, and active participation, which made the workshop a memorable and enriching experience for everyone involved.

In conclusion, the Art Attack workshop at Indhira College of Education was a resounding success, bringing together staff and students to celebrate the joy of creativity and artistic expression. The workshop not only provided valuable skills and knowledge but also fostered a sense of camaraderie and collaboration within the academic community. Such initiatives play a crucial role in promoting holistic education and nurturing the creative potential of individuals.

REPORT ON DISTRICT-LEVEL WEBINAR ON PREADOLESCENT HEALTH

Date : 18.06.2020

Indhira College of Education hosted a district-level webinar on preadolescent health through an online platform. The webinar, held on 18.06.2020, aimed to educate staff and students on various medical issues and precautions relevant to preadolescent health.

Dr. Vatchala, the esteemed Principal of Indira College of Nursing, graciously served as the resource person, sharing her expertise and insights on the subject matter.

DR.VATCHALA, RESOURCE PERSON ADDRESSING AUDIENCE

The webinar commenced with a warm welcome address by Dr. Radhika Vidyasagar, acknowledging the significance of the topic and expressing gratitude to Dr. Vatchala for her participation. Dr. Vatchala then delved into the discussion, enlightening the audience with her profound knowledge and perspectives on preadolescent health.

Throughout the webinar, Dr. Vatchala addressed key medical issues affecting preadolescents, ranging from physical health concerns to psychological well-being. She emphasized the importance of preventive measures and early intervention strategies in promoting overall health and wellness among this demographic.

Dr. Vatchala also highlighted the role of educators and healthcare professionals in identifying signs of health issues and providing appropriate support to preadolescents. She underscored the significance of creating a supportive environment that fosters open communication and encourages healthy lifestyle choices.

REPORT ON TWO-DAY MICROSOFT OFFICE TRAINING SESSION

Date: 05.01.2021

Introduction:

A two-day training session on Microsoft Office was conducted on 05.01.2021, for office assistants at Indhira College of Education. The training was led by Mr. Mohana Kannan, Assistant Professor of the college. The purpose of the training was to enhance Ms. Alamelu's proficiency in Microsoft Office applications, enabling her to perform her duties more efficiently.

Objectives:

- To familiarize office assistants with the features and functionalities of Microsoft Office applications.
- To improve her skills in using Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint for various office tasks.
- To empower office assistants to leverage Microsoft Office tools to streamline office operations and enhance productivity.

Session Details:

The training session took place on 05.01.2021. Mr. Mohana Kannan conducted the sessions in a structured manner, covering the following key topics:

Day 1:

Introduction to Microsoft Office Suite: An overview of the various applications included in Microsoft Office Suite, including Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Outlook.

Microsoft Word Basics: Basic functions such as creating, editing, and formatting documents were covered. Topics included formatting text, inserting tables, and using templates.

PRINCIPAL
INDHIRA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
PANDUR, THIRUVALLUR-631 203

Microsoft Excel Fundamentals: Introduction to spreadsheet basics, including entering data, performing calculations, and creating simple formulas and charts.

Day 2:

Advanced Microsoft Word Features: Advanced formatting techniques, mail merge, and document collaboration features were explored.

Advanced Microsoft Excel Functions: More complex formulas, data analysis tools, and pivot tables were demonstrated to enhance data management and analysis capabilities.

Microsoft PowerPoint Essentials: Basics of creating visually appealing presentations, including slide design, layout, and incorporating multimedia elements.

Hands-on Exercises:

Throughout the training sessions, Mr. Mohana Kannan provided hands-on exercises and practical demonstrations to reinforce learning. Office assistants were encouraged to practice using the software under guidance to gain proficiency and confidence in executing various tasks.

Interactive Sessions:

Interactive sessions were conducted to encourage questions, discussions, and feedback from office assistants. Mr. Mohana Kannan addressed her queries and tailored the training content to suit her learning pace and requirements.

The two-day Microsoft Office training session concluded successfully, equipping office assistants with enhanced skills and knowledge to effectively utilize Microsoft Office applications in her role as an office assistant at Indhira College of Education. Mr. Mohana Kannan thanked office assistants for her active participation and encouraged her to continue practicing and applying the newly acquired skills in her daily tasks.

REPORT ON FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (FDP) ON INTERACTIVE TEACHING

Date: June 30, 2022

Introduction

On June 30, 2022, Indhira College of Education organized a Faculty Development Program (FDP) focusing on Interactive Teaching. The session aimed to explore various teaching techniques and strategies to enhance interactivity in classrooms. Mrs.U.Visalatchi, Assistant Professor of the college, chaired the session, ensuring its smooth conduct and active participation.

Mrs.U.VISLATCHI DELIVERING SPEECH

Session Overview:

The FDP emphasized the importance of interactive teaching methods in promoting effective learning experiences. Throughout the session, participants engaged in discussions, activities, and demonstrations to understand and implement interactive teaching techniques.

PRINCIPAL
INDHIRA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
PANDUR, THIRUVALLUR-631 203

Various approaches, such as group discussions, role-plays, and multimedia presentations, were explored to make teaching more engaging and participatory.

Program Organizer:

Mrs. Nancy Rajathi, Assistant Professor, took charge of organizing the program. Her meticulous planning and coordination ensured the seamless execution of the FDP. From selecting relevant topics to arranging resources and managing logistics, Mrs. Nancy played a crucial role in the success of the event.

Feedback:

The FDP received excellent feedback from the participants, reflecting the effectiveness of the session in achieving its objectives. Attendees appreciated the interactive nature of the program, which allowed them to actively engage with the content and fellow educators. Many highlighted the practical relevance of the teaching techniques discussed and expressed confidence in implementing them in their classrooms.

Conclusion:

The FDP on Interactive Teaching at Indhira College of Education, chaired by Mrs.U.Visalatchi and organized by Mrs. Nancy Rajathi, was a resounding success. The session provided valuable insights and practical strategies to promote interactivity and student engagement in teaching. The positive feedback from participants underscores the importance of such initiatives in enhancing the quality of education delivery. Moving forward, it is imperative to continue fostering a culture of interactive teaching to create enriching learning environments for students.

COVID-19 VACCINE AWARENESS SESSION REPORT FOR NON-TEACHING STAFF

Date : 07-09-2021

Introduction:

In response to concerns and apprehensions surrounding COVID-19 vaccination among non-teaching staff at Indhira College of Education, a comprehensive vaccine awareness training session was conducted by Dr.Regina Joel. The aim was to address fears, dispel myths, and provide accurate information to encourage vaccination uptake.

Key Points Covered:

The training commenced with an overview of the COVID-19 pandemic and the importance of vaccination in curbing its spread. Emphasis was placed on the safety and efficacy of authorized vaccines, highlighting rigorous testing and approval processes.

Dispelling Myths and Misinformation:

Common misconceptions regarding vaccine safety and side effects were addressed transparently. Participants were provided with evidence-based information to counter misinformation, fostering confidence in the vaccination process.

Interactive Discussions:

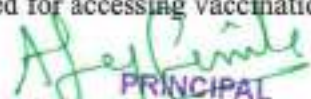

Interactive sessions allowed staff members to voice their concerns and ask questions openly. Healthcare professionals clarified doubts, addressing individual apprehensions and providing reassurance.

Personal Testimonials:

To humanize the vaccination experience, personal testimonials from vaccinated individuals were shared. Staff members shared their positive experiences, emphasizing the minimal side effects and the sense of protection gained from vaccination.

Encouragement and Support:

Throughout the training, staff members were encouraged to make informed decisions based on credible sources and to consult healthcare professionals for personalized advice. Supportive resources and guidance were provided for accessing vaccination appointments.

COVID AWARENESS FOR NON TEACHING STAFF

The vaccine awareness training session successfully addressed fears and uncertainties surrounding COVID-19 vaccination among non-teaching staff at Indhira College of Education. By fostering understanding, dispelling myths, and providing support, the session aimed to empower staff members to make informed choices regarding their health and well-being in the ongoing fight against the pandemic.

It was also informed that free vaccination is done at Indira Medical College and Hospital (in our campus) itself. Hence all were insisted to immediately take vaccine shots at the earliest to avoid human loss.

To conclude Programme Coordinator Mrs. Visalatchi . U, thanked Dr.Regina Joel for removing the fear and myths on covid vaccination prevailed among non-teaching staff.

REPORT ON SPSS DATA ANALYSIS WORKSHOP

A workshop on data analysis using SPSS was conducted by Mr. Mohana Kannan at Indhira College of Education on October 1, 2022. The workshop catered to both staff and students, aiming to enhance their proficiency in descriptive, differential, and correlation analysis techniques using the SPSS software.

The workshop commenced with an overview of SPSS and its significance in data analysis for educational research. Mr. Mohana Kannan provided comprehensive guidance on utilizing SPSS for various types of analysis, emphasizing its importance in generating insights from data sets.

Participants were introduced to descriptive analysis techniques, including measures of central tendency and dispersion, to summarize and interpret data effectively. They gained hands-on experience in generating frequency distributions, histograms, and other descriptive statistics using SPSS.

Furthermore, the workshop covered differential analysis, enabling participants to compare groups and identify patterns or differences within the data. Mr. Mohana Kannan demonstrated how to conduct t-tests, ANOVA, and post-hoc tests using SPSS, equipping participants with the skills to analyze group differences efficiently.

Lastly, participants learned about correlation analysis techniques to explore relationships between variables in their research data. Mr. Mohana Kannan provided guidance on calculating correlation coefficients and interpreting correlation matrices using SPSS, facilitating a deeper understanding of data relationships.

Throughout the workshop, interactive sessions and hands-on exercises were conducted to ensure active engagement and reinforce learning. Participants had the opportunity to practice data analysis techniques under the guidance of Mr. Mohana Kannan, enhancing their proficiency in using SPSS for research purposes.

In conclusion, the SPSS Data Analysis Workshop conducted by Mr. Mohana Kannan at Indhira College of Education proved to be highly beneficial for both staff and students. It equipped participants with valuable skills and knowledge to analyze data effectively using SPSS, thereby enhancing their research capabilities and contributing to academic excellence within the institution.

Mr. Veeramani Kandan Assistant Professor expressed his views on the session and appreciated for the valuable session.

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION OF THE STAFF

Communication and Relationship Building: Effective communication lies at the heart of successful mentoring relationships. Participants were guided on how to establish rapport with their mentees, actively listen to their concerns, and foster a supportive and nurturing environment conducive to growth and development.

Goal Setting and Action Planning: The session emphasized the significance of setting clear goals and developing action plans to support the professional growth of mentees. Mrs. Ashwathi Sathish provided guidance on how to collaboratively establish SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-bound) goals and monitor progress towards their attainment.

Support and Encouragement: Mentoring involves providing both emotional and professional support to mentees. Participants were encouraged to empathize with their mentees' challenges, celebrate their successes, and provide guidance and encouragement throughout their journey.

Vote of Thanks:

Mrs. D. Subhashini extended her sincere gratitude to Mrs. Ashwathi Sathish for her insightful orientation on effective mentoring. She expressed appreciation for Mrs. Ashwathi Sathish expertise and dedication in guiding staff members towards becoming effective mentors. Mrs. Subhashini acknowledged the importance of mentorship in fostering a supportive and collaborative work environment and reiterated the institution's commitment to nurturing the professional growth and development of its staff.

In conclusion, the orientation on effective mentoring conducted by Mrs. Ashwathi Sathish served as a valuable opportunity for staff members to gain insights into the principles and practices of successful mentorship. It equipped participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to support and empower their colleagues in their professional endeavours, thereby contributing to a culture of continuous learning and growth within the institution.

REPORT ON FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME AND TRAINING (FDP)

Principal Dr. Regina Joel

Date : 31.01.2023

A Faculty Development Program (FDP) was conducted on January 31, 2023, at Indhira college of Education under the guidance of Principal Dr. Regina Joel. The FDP aimed to enhance the professional development of faculty members by providing them with valuable insights and training in various aspects of teaching, research, and academic leadership.

TRAINING SKILLS EXPLAINED BY DR. REGINA JOEL

Dr. Regina Joel commenced the program by emphasizing the importance of continuous learning and professional growth in the field of education. She reiterated the institution's commitment to fostering a culture of excellence in teaching and research through initiatives like FDPs.

The FDP encompassed a wide range of topics relevant to faculty members, including innovative teaching methodologies, research methodologies, academic ethics, and effective classroom management techniques.

Interactive workshops and panel discussions were organized, allowing participants to engage in meaningful dialogue, share best practices, and brainstorm solutions to common challenges faced in academic setting. Dr. Regina Joel encouraged active participation from faculty members, fostering a collaborative learning environment where ideas and experiences were exchanged freely.

PRINCIPAL
INDHIRA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
PANDUR, TIRUVALLUR-631 203

Moreover, the FDP provided a platform for networking and building professional relationships among faculty members from different departments and disciplines. This facilitated interdisciplinary collaboration and knowledge sharing, enriching the academic community of the institution.

Participants also received guidance on career advancement and professional growth opportunities within the institution and beyond. Dr. Regina Joel emphasized the importance of setting personal and professional goals and provided mentorship to help faculty members navigate their career paths effectively.

In conclusion, the Faculty Development Program led by Principal Dr. Regina Joel was a resounding success, equipping faculty members with the knowledge, skills, and resources necessary to excel in their roles as educators, researchers, and leaders in academia. The program not only contributed to the professional development of individual faculty members but also strengthened the overall academic quality and reputation of the institution.

Dr. Mohammed Rafi thanked Principal and expressed his feedback on the session and also for the knowledge shared on the topic.

REPORT ON PERSONAL HYGIENE TRAINING FOR HOUSEKEEPING STAFF AT INDHIRA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Date: 03 – 11 - 2022

Introduction

On 03 – 11 - 2022, a training session on personal hygiene was conducted for the housekeeping staff of Indhira College of Education. The session was organized and led by Dr. Regina Joel, the Principal of the college. The purpose of the training was to reinforce the importance of personal hygiene practices among the housekeeping staff to ensure a clean and hygienic environment within the college premises.

Objectives

- ✓ To educate housekeeping staff about the significance of personal hygiene.
- ✓ To familiarize them with proper techniques and practices for personal cleanliness.
- ✓ To emphasize the role of personal hygiene in maintaining a healthy environment within the college.

Session Details

The training session commenced at 12.00 pm and lasted for approximately 30 minutes. Dr. Regina Joel began by welcoming the housekeeping staff and expressing the importance of their role in upholding cleanliness standards within the college. The following topics were covered during the session:

a. Importance of Personal Hygiene: Dr. Regina emphasized the significance of personal hygiene in preventing the spread of infections and diseases, especially in communal settings like educational institutions.

b. Hand Hygiene: Proper handwashing techniques were demonstrated, including the use of soap and water, scrubbing for at least 20 seconds, and drying with clean towels or air dryers.

c. Respiratory Hygiene: The importance of covering mouth and nose while coughing or sneezing to prevent the spread of respiratory droplets was highlighted. Techniques such as using tissues or elbow flexion were demonstrated.

d. Uniform and Personal Grooming: Guidelines for maintaining clean uniforms and personal grooming standards were provided. This included wearing clean attire daily, grooming hair neatly, and avoiding strong fragrances.

PRINCIPAL
INDHIRA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
PANDUR, THIRUVALLUR-631 203

e. Environmental Hygiene: Dr. Regina emphasized the need for housekeeping staff to maintain cleanliness not only in personal spaces but also in the areas they are responsible for cleaning within the college premises.

f. Handling of Cleaning Equipment: Proper handling and maintenance of cleaning equipment to prevent contamination were discussed.

HOUSE KEEPING ACQUAINTED WITH PERSONAL HYGIENE MEASURES

The training session concluded with a recap of the key points discussed and a reminder of the housekeeping staff's responsibility in maintaining hygiene standards within Indhira College of Education. Dr. Regina Joel thanked the staff for their participation and emphasized the importance of implementing the knowledge gained during the session in their daily routines. We extend our gratitude to Dr. Regina Joel for her valuable insights and leadership in organizing this training session.

Report on SUPW Training Program

A one-day training program on Socially Useful Productive Work (SUPW) was conducted at Indhira College of Education on April 27, 2023. The program, spearheaded by Mrs. Jayakumari, Assistant Professor, aimed to impart practical skills to both students and staff members. Activities such as pillow making, garland making, and pot painting were taught, contributing to the holistic development of participants.

The training program commenced with an introduction to the importance of SUPW in education, highlighting its role in fostering creativity, skill development, and community engagement. Mrs. Jayakumari emphasized the significance of hands-on learning experiences in enhancing students' practical skills and nurturing their artistic talents.

Throughout the day, participants actively engaged in various workshops where they learned the techniques and intricacies of pillow making, garland making, and pot painting. Mrs. Jayakumari provided step-by-step guidance, demonstrating different methods and encouraging participants to explore their creativity.

The training program not only benefited students but also staff members who participated enthusiastically. It provided them with an opportunity to learn new skills, unwind from their routine tasks, and foster a sense of camaraderie among colleagues.

Professor J. Lizzie, the program coordinator, expressed her gratitude towards Mrs. Jayakumari for organizing such a meaningful and enriching training program. In her vote of thanks, Professor Lizzie highlighted the importance of practical skills development in education and applauded Mrs. Jayakumari's efforts in making the training program a success.

Overall, the SUPW training program at Indhira College of Education was well-received and highly beneficial for both students and staff members. It not only equipped participants with practical skills but also instilled in them a sense of creativity, teamwork, and appreciation for handmade crafts. Such initiatives play a crucial role in promoting holistic education and fostering the overall development of individuals within the academic community.
